

Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

OUR POLICY

Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights that remains a hidden blight on our global society. It takes various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labour and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain. NICE is committed to ensuring that our business practices combat slavery and human trafficking in any form.

SUPPLIER ADHERENCE TO OUR VALUES

We have zero tolerance to slavery, child and forced labour and human trafficking. To ensure all those in our supply chain comply with our values we will review all agreements and dealings with suppliers to ensure compliance with anti-slavery and human trafficking measures.

We work with a range of suppliers which support our business worldwide. These include marketing, accounting, facilities, employee benefits and IT service providers. Due to the nature of our business, we do not consider that we operate in a high-risk sector.

DUE DILIGENCE PROCESSES FOR SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

As part of our measures to identify and mitigate risk we have in place systems to:

- Ensure our internal employment practices adhere to employment laws and regulation
- Identify and assess potential risk areas in our supply chains.
- Mitigate the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our supply chains.
- Monitor potential risk areas in our supply chains.
- Protect whistle blowers.

TRAINING

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we intend to provide training to our staff to identify signs and risks of slavery and human trafficking. We will require our suppliers and business partners to provide training to their staff, suppliers and providers.

OUR EFFECTIVENESS IN COMBATING SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

We will aim to continually monitor and improve our approach to tackling slavery and human trafficking in our business or supply chains.

FURTHER STEPS

Following a review of the effectiveness of the steps we have taken to ensure that there is no slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains we intend to take the following further steps to combat slavery and human trafficking:

- We have introduced a Supplier Code of Conduct to make it clear that NICE does not condone slavery or human trafficking in any way and to impose a commitment on our suppliers to expect the same high standards from their suppliers.
- We include specific prohibitions against the use of forced, compulsory or trafficked labour, or anyone held in slavery, whether adults or children in our supplier agreement, and we expect that our suppliers will hold their own suppliers to the same high standards.
- We will continue to audit suppliers against the standards we have set.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes NICE's slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 2022.
